I know K.V.Lakshinarasimha Raju from july 1937 when I occupied the house in which I am now residing. The father of the boy was the caretaker of the house and was allowed to live in one of the out-houses till recently. I had this occasion to know the boy, up-bringing ,and his behaviour and conduct to a fair extent. The father worked to give the boy in addition to his work . There was no occasion all the time that they stayed here, to find fault with them in any way. The boy is quiet, obedient, well-behaved, honest and industrious. He is anxious to please his master. He has qualities which will appeal to an employer and I wish him luck in his attempts to secure a footing in some kind of employment, as he cannot afford to prosecute his studies any further.
